

Robert J. (“Bob”) Chersi
Biography

Bob Chersi recently retired as Member of the Executive Committee and CFO of Financial Services for Fidelity Investments. Prior to joining Fidelity, Bob spent twenty years with UBS AG (including predecessor firms Paine Webber and Kidder Peabody), where he most recently was a Member of the UBS AG Group Managing Board. He started his career as a CPA with KPMG.

He graduated summa cum laude from Pace University in 1983, and subsequently completed post-graduate financial and leadership development programs offered via the General Electric Company (i.e., “Crotonville”) and the UBS Leadership Institute.

Bob has also served on a number of civic boards, including service as . . .

- Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the UBS USA Foundation
- Board Member for the Bon Secours New Jersey / St. Mary's Hospital Foundation
- Trustee for the Fidelity Investments Political Action Committee
- Panelist for the New York Stock Exchange's Hearing Board
- Participant in New York City's PENCIL (“Public Education Needs Civic Involvement in Learning”) program

Bob resides with his wife and three sons in Ridgewood, NJ, where he has coached various Ridgewood youth sports teams for over fifteen years. He is an avid sports fan whose hobbies include running and golf.