

FinanceCourse Number: 22:390:675*Course Title: Finance for the C-Suite (Options and Issues in Finance)*COURSE OBJECTIVE

Finance for the C-Suite will provide students with practical experience in solving finance issues typically encountered in investment banking and the CFO's office. The unique team-taught approach combines seven finance professors, and each lecture is based on his or her 20+ years of professional experience in the given topic. While this course will expose you to the various decisions and situations you would face as a finance executive, you will likely not confront all of these issues simultaneously. That said, you will be equipped with skills to solve for them when you do.
