

Spring 2026 RBS Global Experience Course (3 Credits)

Doing Business in India March 13 – 22, 2026 (Spring Break)

Doing Business in India for MBA & UG (Seniors/Juniors) & other Rutgers students

March 13 – 22, 2026 (Spring Break) + 3 to 4 classes during Spring semester

Program Fee: $2,275 includes domestic flights/hotels and most meals*

**Does not include International Flights and Visa Fees*

Visit three metro cities (New Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore) and interact with senior executives from industry and the Indian government. Cultural site visits including Agra (Taj Mahal).

Course Requirements: 3 case studies + Individual journal report + Group Presentations in April

Tuition: None if already registered for 12 credits for the Spring '26 semester (otherwise as per Rutgers' fees)

Flights: Students can book flights through Rutgers or by themselves. Depending on the booking date, the cost can be approximately $850 round trip or much higher closer to the departure date.

Visa: $ 25 and up

6.5% GDP Growth Rate (IMF). India is one of the top recipients of foreign investments in the world.

Two scholarships of $500 available!

Interested?

Take the student survey here.

Why consider enrolling for this Global Travel Course for Spring 2026 Semester?

Opportunity to get away from home during Spring Break for an engaging international business experience and a cultural immersion program in India.

Opportunity to interact/learn and network with business executives of international companies in India, government officials, NGO representatives and students from local universities.

Opportunity to boost your Resume and set yourself apart from others with job potential in global firms.

Opportunity to soften your Spring semester study load with a relatively lighter but very meaningful 3-credit elective course.

Lead Faculty -
Professor Farok Contractor
Professor Joydeep Chatterjee

For more information to enroll, contact:
global\_experience@business.rutgers.edu

