

Parag Shah

Vice President (Grocery/DSD/Specialty), Wakefern Food Corporation

Parag is a growth-minded, consumer-focused executive specializing in defining vision and strategy for multibillion-dollar businesses, with experience in revitalizing operations, improving consumer engagement, and positioning units for long-term success. He is a proven change agent known for reengineering processes and streamlining efficiencies to optimize performance.

Parag is an influential servant leader who mentors diverse, high-performing teams, as well as empowers and develops promising talent and future leaders. He fosters partnerships with C-suite executives to create initiatives while driving savings and margin improvements. He is an analytical manager who evaluates organizational performance and business results to develop data-driven strategies.

Parag Shah is known for breaking barriers and gaining consensus among diverse groups to deliver on goals. He is committed to establishing inclusive, cohesive, and consumer-first cultures of excellence. He leverages purpose-driven attitude to enhance workforce diversity, ensure social responsibility in corporate environments, and serve community organizations.

Parag currently serves as the Vice President of Grocery, DSD, and Specialty at Wakefern Food Corporation.