Finance Majors

If you plan on declaring a finance major, you cannot take Intro to Financial Management 33:390:300 abroad. It will not transfer back as 33:390:310. Typically, final exams in 390:310 are also qualifying exams. If you take 390:300 abroad in the Fall, as a non-finance major, and then decide to become a Finance major, a qualifying exam will be available and mandatory to take at the end of the following Spring semester. However, please note that you will not be able to take either Investment Analysis or Corporate Finance in the Spring that follows your semester abroad. Please contact the Finance departmental office for qualifying exam information.

Marketing Majors and Finance Majors - The Marketing and Finance Departments will only allow transferability of 2 department courses abroad.

Please note:

- All courses must be pre-approved in writing by the RBS Office of Undergraduate Programs prior to studying abroad to ensure transferability. Students cannot retake courses abroad.
- Students must satisfy all of the pre-requisites and requirements here before taking any courses abroad. Failure to do so will result in the student not receiving credit for the study abroad course.
- For Non-Rutgers Study Abroad programs, it is the student's responsibility to have an official transcript sent to the RBS Office of Undergraduate Programs to the attention of Helen Pensavalle as soon as possible after the completion of the study abroad program.
