

Covid Pre-Business Academic Standing Policy

AY 2021-2022

Students in the Rutgers Business School are expected to maintain the highest level of academic performance. Depending on your cohort, any one of the following conditions will result in dismissal from the Rutgers Business School:

Undergraduate-New Brunswick:

Class of 24 student: entered RBS directly from high school	External or School-to-School Transfer Student: starting RBS in Fall 2021
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in pre-business courses (NC grades will not count against you) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in pre-business courses (NC grades will not count against you)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in business courses (NC grades will not count against you) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in business courses (NC grades will not count against you)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cumulative grade-point average lower than 2.5 by the end of your sophomore year/4th semester (May) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cumulative grade-point average lower than 2.5 by the end of your 2nd semester (May)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not completing all six pre-business courses with a grade of P (pass) and/or C or higher by the end of your sophomore year/4th semester (May) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not completing all six pre-business courses with a grade of P (pass) and/or C or higher by the end of your 2nd semester (May)

There will be no summer session extensions, for the completion of pre-business requirements. The end of the spring semester (May) is always the firm deadline

Students dismissed from the Rutgers Business School: Undergraduate-New Brunswick prior to meeting the requirements to declare a major are not eligible to appeal their dismissal. *****

Class of 23 or 22 student with no declared major: Did not meet requirements to declare in spring 2021 or summer 2021
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in pre-business courses by the end of fall 2021 (NC grades will not count against you)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three grades of D or F received in business courses by the end of fall 2021 (NC grades will not count against you)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cumulative grade-point average lower than 2.5 by the end of fall 2021 (a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher is required to declare a Business major)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not completing all six pre-business courses with grades of P (pass) and/or C or higher by the end of fall 2021
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If student takes a leave of absence during the fall 2021 semester

There will be no extensions, for the completion of pre-business requirements. The end of the fall semester (December) is the firm deadline

Students dismissed from the Rutgers Business School: Undergraduate-New Brunswick prior to meeting the requirements to declare a major are not eligible to appeal their dismissal. *****