WHO CAN STUDY ABROAD?
Students become eligible to study abroad the summer following their first year. To participate in a semester-long program, students are generally eligible starting the Spring semester of their sophomore year.

WHAT WILL IT COST?
Study abroad programs are individually priced. Students who qualify for Financial Aid, RU Scholarships, or tuition remission can have that aid applied towards the cost of the program. Many semester programs are subsidized through the Access the World Initiative.

LOOKING FORWARD:
Meet with your Rutgers Global Study Abroad advisor as well as your RBS advisor to begin planning. Remember, it is never too early to start planning!

HOW DO I APPLY?
Visit global.rutgers.edu/study-abroad. Meet with an advisor prior to completing your application at ru_abroad@global.rutgers.edu. To apply, you must submit the following materials:

- Official Transcripts from all Institutions Attended
- Personal Essay
- Academic Letters of Recommendation (varies by program)
- Application Fee
